Johannes Kampert joins Pan Acoustics as Head of Global Sales

The German audio specialist Pan Acoustics announces, that from March Johannes Kampert will join the company as “Head of Global Sales”. In the position he will sign responsible for all worldwide sales activity and will drive continued expansion of the global sales network.

“Johannes brings to us vast experience in international sales of complex audio and video networks. His commercial expertise combined with technical know-how is a real benefit to our organization and we are looking forward to working together”, says Udo Borgmann, CEO at Pan Acoustics.

“At Pan Acoustics I found key values that are crucial to me: Quality, experience, passion and fun in what you do. I sincerely believe in success through people and in building long term partnerships. Pan Acoustics has an ideal growth perspective and I’m looking forward to each client who wants to work with us now – and in the future”, says Johannes Kampert.

Pan Acoustics is an audio manufacture on highest industrial standards creating audio solutions for complex acoustic environments. As one of the first manufacturers Pan Acoustics made beam steering technology practically usable in their Pan Beam speaker series dating back to 2005 already. The solutions can be heard in worldwide renown projects like Airport Charles de Gaulle in Paris, Parliament of Angola, Exeter College in Oxford or St. Stephen’s Basilica in Budapest where the systems guarantee for excellent and natural sound reproduction. Research, development, manufacturing and administration are all located in the brand new headquarters based in Wolfenbüttel, Germany. For more information please visit www.pan-acoustics.de
